FEMALE WEAKNESS

542 1-2 Congress St.
PORTLAND, MAINE, Oct. 17, 1902.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed
menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agony I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Wilhelmina Lewis
Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently nineteen out of every twenty cases of irregular menstruation, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness.
Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

IN MEMORIAM.

On Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock the 5th lost, sad intelligence was dashed over the wires announcing to the father and mother at Lebanon Junction the accidental killing of Mr. Lee Payne at Maywood. While in the discharge of his duties as brakeman he was caught between an engine and car and crushed in the lower part of his bowels and run over. He lived only a short while but was conscious almost to his last breath. His corpse, accompanied by his father, mother and numerous friends and relatives from Stanford, was brought to his home at Lebanon Junction Wednesday afternoon. They were met at the depot by a vast crowd of friends and neighbors, thus attesting their sympathy for the family and also the high regard in which the deceased was held by his home people. Perhaps the greatest encomium that could be pronounced upon Lee was the immense concourse of friends from Louisville and his own town that gathered Thursday afternoon to do honors to his memory as he was to be laid to rest.

Being a Maccabee he was buried with the rites of the order and the magnificent body of Sir Knights and Ladies followed by the children of the graded school, extended almost from the home to the cemetery, to say nothing of the large number of people who were not in the march. At the grave they performed the beautiful and impressive ceremonies of the order, after which the evergreen was thrown into the grave, the body covered with mother earth and the floral offerings, which were profuse, were artistically arranged and a photograph of the grave, surrounded by the family and near relatives, was made. Lee was an exemplary, honest, honorable young man, against whom not a charge could be brought. Thoughtful, kind and considerate, he counted his friends by his acquaintances and his untimely death falls as a heavy blow upon all.

A FRIEND.

PHYSICIAN'S GOOD LUCK.

Dr. Hart's Fortunate Experience of Special Interest to Many in Stanford.

The happiest man in New England today and one who is receiving congratulations from his friends, is Dr. Phillip Z. Hart, of Laconia, N. H.

Although he resorted to the latest scientific treatment, and consulted many of his brother physicians, Dr. Hart finally said, "I might just as well have thrown my money in the river for I grew worse and worse."

My wife and I will swear that Hyomei cured me of the worst case of catarrh that ever existed. I used to cough constantly at night, and had a dropping in the throat, which kept me awake a great deal. I raised thick phlegm and was in a horrible condition. However, I am entirely cured solely through the use of Hyomei." Penny is the local agent for Hyomei, the famous treatment which cures catarrh without stomach dosing. A complete outfit costs but $1, extra bottles 50c. Penny sells it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not give you quick relief.

In a lecture at San Antonio, Texas, Carrie Nation denounced President Roosevelt as a "bear-slayer, a bird-killer and a beer-guzzling Dutchman."

Babe Huff was run over and killed by freight train at Solence Hill.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

Willie—Papa, if I was twice would you buy the other boy a banana, too?

Papa—Certainly, my son.

Willie—Papa, you surely ain't going to cheat me out of another banana just because I'm all in one piece?
